23 HTHS Seniors Make 100 on Required American History Test

There's a new state law which requires all students to pass a comprehensive test on American government before they can get their diplomas.

The test was given to seniors at HTHS this week and they gave a good one. The history department had charge of compiling the questions and the grading of papers. First, a list of 150 questions was given each senior. They had to look up the answers in their books, getting about two weeks for study.

Then they were given an examination on 50 of these questions.

Of the group, 23 made a grade of 100. Nine failed the test and will get another chance. Juniors will take a test—not the same questions—before school is out, and those who pass will not have to take the test again. Starting next year the tests will be given in the American history classes.

Before we get into the questions, let us announce that the following made grades of 100: Barbara Alvey, Martha Armistead, Dianne Barker, June Blackard, Harry Boyd, Fredi Christman, Tom Cole, Marlene Cotton, Bill Epperheimer, James Govan, Joyce Gullett, Pat Hedger, Bill Horning, Jean Keltner, Beverly Mark, Regina McCormick, David Patterson, Donna Paul, Sam Stafford, Jo Ann Stricklin, Pat Trammel, John Wiley and Joann Willis.

We'll give you the first 40 of the 50 questions in this column. We're leaving out the last ten because they are matching questions and I can't figure out a way to get them down in this single narrow column of type.

What would you do on the 40 given? Here goes:

The following quotations are taken from (a) the Declaration of Independence (b) the Constitution of the United States and (c) the Constitution of Illinois. Indicate the correct answer with the small letter representing the document from which the quotation was taken.

1. "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal."

2. "We are grateful to Almighty God for the civil, political and religious liberty which He hath so long permitted us to enjoy, and looking to Him for a blessing upon our endeavors to secure and transmit the same unimpaired to succeeding generations."

3. "When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for people to dissolve the political

Indochina is Still Important, President Says

Seeks to Dispel French Fears of Abandoning Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the free world ought not write off Indochina because it is very important to the defense of Southeast Asia.

Mr. Eisenhower denied at his news conference that there are any differences in his view and those of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the importance of Indochina.

Dulles had said Tuesday that he believes Southeast Asia could be held without Indochina.

The President said emphatically that Indochina is very important to the defense of Southeast Asia. He said the great idea under way now is to set up a collective defense arrangement to protect the area against Communist conquest.

Nation Still Important

Mr. Eisenhower said the plan spearheaded by the United States to defend the area is to prevent Southeast Asian countries falling like dominoes to the Communists.

He said we also are trying through this unity plan to be able to withstand the fall of one country, if necessary.

A reporter pointed out that since the fall of Dien Bien Phu there had been "talk of doing without Indochina." The reporter asked the President if he regards Indochina as "still indispensable" to Southeast Asia.

Mr. Eisenhower replied that Indochina is very important, and that he believes the free world ought not write it off despite the loss of the French fortress.

Long faces and defeatism don't win battles, the President emphasized.

Dispels French Fears

Mr. Eisenhower's comments were designed to dispel French fears that the United States was writing off Indochina as lost to the Communists. The French voiced such concern Tuesday after Dulles said he believes Southeast Asia can be held without Indochina.

Volunteering an explanation of Dulles' remarks, the President said the secretary had said the United States would never give up in Southeast Asia even if Indochina fell.

Meanwhile, informed sources said that Dulles urged Congress, at a secret meeting with the House Foreign Affairs Committee Tuesday, to give the administration a free hand to use Indochina aid funds to arm members of his proposed Southeast Asia alliance.

The administration has asked for more than one billion dollars to finance the anti-Communist fight in Indochina in the year beginning July 1. Under the present bill, five-sixths of this would be handled through France.

Dulles' proposal was an obvious effort to cut away the strings so the money can be used to best advantage in the fast-moving effort to stem the Red tide in Asia.

Ceremony Friday At Cairo to Free Mississippi Bridge

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Governor William G. Stratton and three other Illinois state officials will participate in a ceremony marking the freeing of the Mississippi river bridge at Cairo on Saturday, May 22.

Governor Stratton will appear on the speaking program and will spend the entire day in the area. He will be accompanied by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, Auditor of Public Accounts Orville E. Hodge and Attorney General Latham Castle.

The annual Magnolia Festival and the Miss Illinois Beauty Queen Pageant also will be held in Cairo on the day of the bridge ceremony.

The bridge, which was opened in 1929, cost $3,100,000 to build. It has been operated since 1942 by the Cairo Bridge Commission.

The ceremony freeing the bridge marks the end of toll collections which paid for the structure. Ownership will pass to the states of Illinois and Missouri. Since the middle of the channel of the Mississippi river is the boundary of the two states, one half of the bridge is in Illinois and the other one-half in Missouri.

Default Day Friday In Circuit Court

Friday will be default day in Saline county circuit court, it was announced today by Circuit Clerk Quentin Bowers. Judge Clarence E. Wright of Carbondale will preside.

Bankston Fork Baptist Church

Bankston Fork Baptist Church to Celebrate Its Centennial Sunday

Bankston Fork Baptist church, which stands as the religious center of a community northwest of Harrisburg, will celebrate its centennial next Sunday with all-day services.

The church, one of the oldest in this area, was organized March 4, 1854, and held its first services in old Ebenezer church. In 1870 a new building was erected on a 2-acre tract donated and deeded to the church by W. H. Pankey Sr. Later, half the area was sold to the school district, and in course of time an acre was purchased for use as a cemetery.

A second building, modern for its day, was built in 1894 made possible by funds that came as a legacy from A. B. Bickers. The building now occupied, one of the most beautiful rural churches of the area, was built in 1929, and the church property as it stands is valued at approximately $20,000.

Gasoline War Continues In This Area

A gasoline price war in this area which started back in February continues without any ideas of when it will quit.

Since February motorists have been overjoyed at pre-war prices on regular gasoline and on April 3 premium gasoline came down, too.

Back in February, when the independents were selling at a lower figure, the majors dropped their regular gasoline from 29.9 to 23.9 in Harrisburg. A short time later this figure spread down Route 45 to Carrier Mills and much later to Eldorado.

On April 3 premium gasoline dropped from around 32 cents a gallon to 27.9 and has remained there at the majors' stations.

Then last week-end the major companies dropped their regular gasoline to 20.9 and it extended as far south as Carrier Mills on Route 45 and to Pankeyville on Route 34. It was reported 20.9 at Raleigh, 23.9 at Galatia and 23.0 at Eldorado. These were last night's figures. They might change during the day.

During all the price war, the independents in East Harrisburg have stayed below the majors.

One station, the Culton 96 Station at the Routes 45-34 intersection, yesterday had signs showing the price of regular 13.9 plus tax and some people thought the price had dropped to the 13.9 figure. It was explained this morning that the public was just being shown how much of the price it pays for gasoline goes into taxes.

Junior-Senior Prom At HTHS Friday

The annual Junior-Senior Prom at Harrisburg Township high school will be held Friday night starting at eight o'clock in Bonnell gymnasium.

The gym will be decorated, using the showboat theme. Music will be by the Southern All-Stars. This excellent band furnished the music for last year's prom and is being brought back by popular request.

Miss Faye Nance is chairman of the Junior Class sponsors. Other sponsors are John Schork, Kathryn Rice, E. J. Thompson, Louise Cothran and Marshall Cothran, all HTHS faculty members.

Robinson Child Is Fatally Crushed By Father's Truck

ROBINSON, Ill. — James M. Lytle, 21-month-old son of Edward Lytle, was crushed to death Tuesday when his father's truck ran over him at his home.

Lytle, who operates an electrical shop at his home, left his son in the house when he went to drive the truck out of the yard. He did not know the boy was out of the house until he saw the boy's body in the driveway.

The boy died a few minutes after being taken to a hospital.

The membership roll of Bankston church records some 275 names, but the non-resident membership would bring the figure much higher.

The oldest living member is Mrs. Harriet Parks, who has been an affiliate for more than 70 years and who now at the age of 84, is a fairly regular attendant at services.

Former Pastors

The church, over the period of a century, has had 40 pastors. Among those now living, in addition to the present pastor, are Rev. G. E. Slavens, retired, of Galatia; Rev. W. A. Travelstead, retired, of Marion; Rev. Ernest Ammon, pastor of the Baptist church, Carrier Mills, and Rev. Cloyd Wesley of Eldorado. R. F. D. 3, who is pastor of the Baptist church at Wasson.

The centennial message Sunday morning will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Travelstead. At noon a basker dinner will be spread on the church lawn, weather permitting, otherwise in the basement.

In the afternoon will come the roll call and reading of the history of the church. A more or less informal program with volunteer talks by former pastors and others, congregational singing and special musical numbers will follow, the services ending on an evangelistic note characterized by an old fashioned altar service.

Dr. Steinborn also discusses

Philanthropic projects of B'nai B'rith, largest Jewish fraternal organization in the United States, with a membership of about 400,000, were discussed last night before members of the Kiwanis club at the Masonic temple by Dr. A. O. Steinborn, member of the club.

In southern Illinois B'nai B'rith is composed of the Southern Illinois council of nine southern Illinois lodges. Dr. Steinborn explained there are four districts in Illinois and each state is also composed of districts. The Supreme Grand lodge is at Washington, D. C.

B'nai B'rith is strictly sectarian, but its philanthropic projects are non-sectarian and at the National Jewish hospital in Denver for the treatment of tuberculosis cases and at the Levi Memorial hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., for the treatment of arthritic cases, one of the rules is that the patients must not be able to pay.

Other projects include operation of Bellefair, formerly the Cleveland Jewish Orphan home. Bellefair is the oldest B'nai B'rith philanthropy in America. It was founded in 1868 by Districts 2 and 6 to care for children orphaned by the Civil War. Today, in response to changing needs and modern child care concepts, it gives protection and guidance to youngsters who have become troubled and bewildered by personal problems and who find it difficult to adjust in their own homes.

B'nai B'rith also operates SCAFF (Service Committee to the Armed Forces and Veterans). The hospitalized veterans program has been a major project of the order since V-J Day. Today 1,700 local lodges and chapters in the United States and Canada are serving the Armed Forces overseas and throughout the continent.

June 5 has been set as the date for a quartet singing program to be sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

Army Counsel Adams Charges Abuse by Cohn

Replaces Stevens On Witness Stand; 15th Day of Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army counsel John G. Adams testified today that Roy M. Cohn heaped "abuse" on him and brought "extreme pressure" on the Army in an effort to get special favors for his drafted friend, Pvt. G. David Schine.

Adams, who replaced Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens on the witness stand on the 15th day of the Army-McCarthy hearings, also testified that Cohn flew into a rage and declared "This is war" when Stevens barred him from a secret radar laboratory at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., last Oct. 20.

The Army counselor related in detail how Cohn, chief counsel of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's investigating subcommittee, put "extreme pressure" on him to get a New York assignment for Schine, unpaid "chief consultant" of the subcommittee before he was drafted last Nov. 3.

Adams estimated that, in telephone calls alone, Cohn brought up the Schine question an average of once a day from Nov. 10 to Dec. 9.

Asked by subcommittee special counsel Ray H. Jenkins if it was "terrific pressure," Adams explained that it surpassed all similar pressure combined in his Pentagon experience.

Lengthen Hearings

"The abuse I took regarding Schine," he said in a deliberate voice, "... if you'd pile together the abuse I took from all members of Congress and congressional employees over five years, it would not compare" with that in the Schine case.

"Abuse from whom?" Jenkins asked.

"From Cohn," Adams replied. Adams testified that McCarthy told him in New York City last Oct. 14 or 15 that he hoped Schine would be drafted because he was "not much good" to the subcommittee.

He said McCarthy later, in a private conversation Nov. 3 or 4—only a day or two before Schine's induction—vetoed a plan Cohn and Stevens had worked out for giving Schine two weeks of temporary, out-of-uniform duty in New York, immediately after he was drafted.

The subcommittee agreed at a closed meeting to add an hour and a half to its daily televised sessions by starting earlier and quitting later.

Acting Chairman Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) said that for the rest of this week the hearings would be in at 10 a. m. EDT instead of 10:30, recess at 12:30 p. m. for lunch, and resume at 2 p. m. instead of 2:30. He said the hearings would run until 5 p. m. instead of 4:30.

Eisenhower Says Army is Capable of Taking Care of Own Security Risks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that the Army is perfectly capable of taking care of its security risks.

Mr. Eisenhower added, however, that a good look-see from the outside can be useful. He recalled an old Army saying that "That which is not inspected deteriorates."

Mr. Eisenhower also told a news conference that it was reprehensible for an Army officer to give out confidential information without authorization.

Mr. Eisenhower was asked if he would comment on the propriety of an Army intelligence officer allegedly giving such information to Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

The President replied that enlisted men take an oath to obey their superior officers and that he thought it was perfectly ridiculous to say that an officer did not owe the same loyalty and obedience all the way up the line to the commander-in-chief.

Mr. Eisenhower used words virtually similar to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's in describing the Army's ability to handle security risks. Wilson said Tuesday night that the armed forces were "entirely capable" of digging out security risks without congressional investigations.

Says Army Loyal

Mr. Eisenhower expressed confidence that the sense of loyalty in the Army is high indeed. He said that he had found that the great mass of the members of the Army were loyal and dedicated to the security of the nation.

While he believes the Defense Department is perfectly capable of taking care of security risks, Mr. Eisenhower said that he did not mean that an occasional outside look-see would not be all right. But as a rule, he said, the armed services can take care of the matter to the satisfaction of the American people.

Wilson made his remarks on security risks Tuesday night as he left for a Far East tour. He told reporters he hoped the Army-McCarthy hearings will be "marked down to size and over with" by the time he returns.

FHA 'Windfall' Profits Forced Higher Rents

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Housing Administration admits tenants have been forced to pay excessive rents in apartments where the builders reap "windfall" profits. Sen. Harry F. Byrd disclosed today.

The Virginia Democrat, who has been investigating the housing irregularities for nearly a year, said the FHA has informed him that rentals in apartment projects built with government-insured loans are based on the government's "estimated replacement cost" rather than actual cost.

"This means," Byrd said, that under "the scandalized rental apartment (program where loans were insured in excess of actual cost) the burden of the outrageous windfalls which resulted have fallen upon those renting housing in these properties."

Quick Profit

The current housing scandals revolve in part around the excessive profits made by apartment builders who received government-backed mortgages exceeding the cost of the projects, and then pocketed the excess as a quick profit.

In some cases, Byrd said in a statement, the FHA approved loans up to 140 per cent in excess of the natural cost, with estimated "windfall" profits totalling at least 100 million dollars.

Meanwhile Acting FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason called in 12 private businessmen today for a skull session on proposals to prevent the alleged abuses.

Mason must submit his ideas to the Senate Banking committee shortly. Today's meeting and another Thursday, with eight groups representing "consumer interests," will provide an advance, closed-door airing for ideas from all sides.

2 Husbands Shot In Duel While Wives at PTA

SHAMROCK, Okla. (AP)—The wives of two men, who shot each other 16 times while the ladies attended a PTA meeting, said today they were still friends and knew no reason for their husbands' duel.

Meanwhile, Arthur Simpson, 32, and J. R. Johnson, 39, were in a Cushing, Okla., hospital in critical condition from wounds suffered when they shot each other in a flood-lit backyard duel Monday night.

Simpson, an employee of a pipeline company, was hit six times by 38 caliber bullets. Johnson, a welder, was hit 10 times by .22 caliber bullets.

Have a Drink

"I don't think either one of them knew what they were doing," Mrs. Johnson said. She said they got together for a "drinking party" while their wives went to a Parent-Teachers Assn. Meeting.

"If our husbands had just been present at the PTA meeting," Mrs. Simpson said, "nothing like this would have happened."

J. J. Collier, Simpson's neighbor, apparently was the only eyewitness. He also knew no reason for the gunplay. He said he saw Johnson and Simpson walk into the latter's backyard and one of them yelled to "turn on the floodlights."

"I didn't know what it was all about," Collier said, "but I turned on the lights. Then all hell broke loose."

He said Johnson had a pistol and Simpson a repeating rifle. They fired at each other until the guns were empty, and then each collapsed.

Says Foreign Policy Has Been Bi-Partisan

President Supports Statement by Senator Knowland

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that Democrats are just as loyal as Republicans.

He said at a news conference that he has been trying to have a bi-partisan foreign policy as possible.

Mr. Eisenhower was asked if he would comment on former President Truman's charges that "political assassins" in the Republican Party have accused the Democrats of being a party of treason.

Mr. Eisenhower noted that he had ridiculed such an idea several weeks ago.

The Democratic Party, Mr. Eisenhower said, is just as loyal as any other party.

As for the administration's efforts to carry out a bi-partisan foreign policy, Mr. Eisenhower called attention to Tuesday's speech by Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California. The President said that he had called members of the Democratic Party in to see the foreign policy section of his State of the Union message in advance.

Knowland urged Republicans and Democrats to recognize that the Communist Party is the only "party of treason" in the United States. Knowland's statement hit indirectly at Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) who has linked the Democrats with what he calls "20 years of treason."

Mr. Eisenhower said that the State Department alone had conferred with Democrats 91 times in the last 16 months and that there had been many other bipartisan Foreign Operations Administration, Defense and other government departments.

But Mr. Eisenhower added, the Democrats called in on such matters had to be a selected group. He said that you couldn't go down to the last Democrat.

Knowland declared in a Senate speech that Republicans and Democrats alike "should and do resent any reflection on the patriotism and devotion to public service of our two great political parties."

"Let us here and now, Republicans and Democrats alike, recognize the fact that there is only one group that can be charged with being the 'party of treason' and that is the Communist party."

In a Milwaukee speech March 19, McCarthy placed before "the greatest of all juries, the American people" a 20-count "indictment" against the Democrats which he charged added up to "20 years of treason, 2

Loose Law, Not Crookedness, Is Behind the FHA Scandals

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The general impression has been given that there has been a great deal of corruption in Federal Housing Administration.

But when all the congressional investigations and headline hoopla are finally reduced to their essentials, it will be found that the cause for the scandal was careless law-making.

It will be found that everything done by the housing money lenders, the bigger builders, the smaller home modernizers and FHA officials was perfectly within the law. But it will also be found that a number of sharp operators, high-pressure salesmen, racketeers and worse were able to take advantage of loopholes in the law for some highly unethical gouging of the public to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars.

If the Senate Banking Committee under Homer Capehart of Indiana, or the Senate Expenditures Committee under Harry Byrd of Virginia want to do a real job of investigating these practices, they might dig back to find why Congress wrote the law so loosely.

ONE PLACE to begin on this would be to review the 1950 lobbying investigation hearings and reports of the House special committee headed by the late Rep. Frank Buchanan (D., Pa.). The Buchanan committee paid special attention to the so-called real estate lobby. It was revealed as powerful and well organized. Its influence on housing legislation was sizable.

Some elements of the mortgage banking and building industries fought all government housing legislation. The argument was that private enterprise could do the job better. The significant thing is that when housing legislation was passed, it was usually shaped to give the industry big profits and all the guarantees, at the ultimate expense of the housing purchaser or tenant and the taxpayers.

These are the fundamental causes of the present FHA mess. The now-dead section 608 was written in 1942 so that big builders could

Water Supplies Of Area Towns Boosted by Rains

SPRINGFIELD — The chief of the State Water Survey today reported water supplies of some southern Illinois towns were boosted from 2 to 12 months by heavy rains this month.

In a report to Gov. William G. Stratton, Dr. A. M. Buswell said a heavy rain May 2 increased supplies at Sparta, Du Quoin and Elkhart.

He said Sparta's 2 reservoirs would have been exhausted May 6 but the 2.7 inch rain provided a 2 1/2 month supply. Sparta is also planning to pump 900,000 gallons of water daily from a mine pond through a 9 1/2 mile pipeline.

Du Quoin got 3.9 inches of rainfall May 2, boosting the water supply from three months to 15 months. Elkhart, which has been pumping water from strip mines since last fall, got a three-month supply of water in its municipal reservoir from the downpour.

Buswell said 2.78 inches of rain Sunday raised Mount Vernon's Lake Miller 27 inches, while Mattoon got 1.37 inches and Olney 3 inches of rain. He said other towns in the heavy rainfall area were Marissa, Nashville, Ashley, Sesser, Benton, and Harrisburg.

Cleve means both to stick together and to part.

make millions out of windfall profits by mortgaging out their operations. When this loophole was discovered, section 608 was repealed in 1950.

TITLE I of the FHA Act, under which home repair and modernization loans were authorized, was written in 1934 to give all the breaks to the remodeling contractor and the lending institution. They loved these government-insured loans for this work.

Why not? The loans could be discounted at the banks for 5 per cent, cash in advance on the full amount. This was the equivalent of over 9 per cent on the money, if interest had been paid only on the balance due, as the principal was retired. The contractors had to charge the home owners at least 5 per cent more for every job, to overcome the discount. And the borrowers paid through the nose.

The unscrupulous operators who took advantage of the liberal guarantees in both of these programs have of course given the legitimate, honest and responsible interests a black eye.

This is only the first of the bad effects which the exposure of these irregularities will have. The willingness of the Eisenhower administration to clean up scandals as fast as they are discovered is being commended. But at this time, the disclosures are most unfortunate.

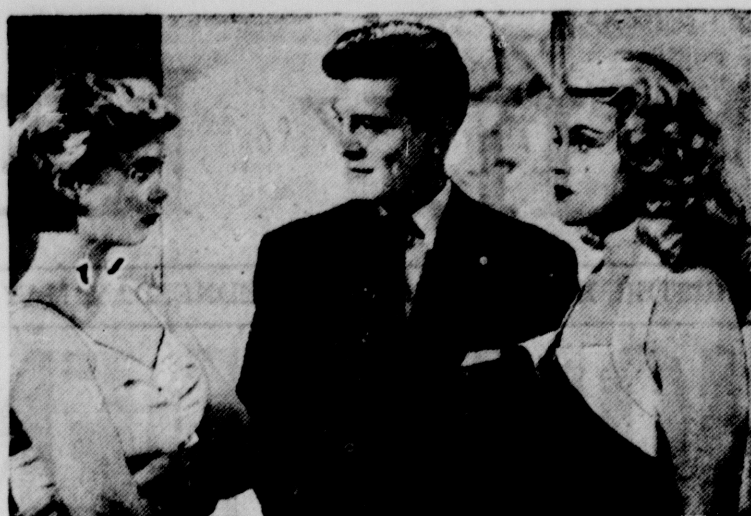

Home repair and home building are two of the most steady influences in the present recession economy. Both may now drop.

FHA INSPECTORS in every local office in the country will now be inclined to reduce the value of loans they guarantee. Instead of approving a mortgage for $12,000, they will now cut it to say $10,000.

Public confidence in all government housing has been shaken. Housing and Home Finance Administrator Albert M. Cole has indicated that the Wherry Act and defense housing will also be investigated.

The Eisenhower administration housing program, passed by the House and now before the Senate, has been pushed aside till the investigations are over. All programs may now be cut drastically. The home "trade-in" program which is being promoted by the real estate business has been set back indefinitely.

A whispering campaign that FHA might not be able to pay off its obligations in case a sharp housing depression should set in now appears to be groundless. In its 20 years of operations, FHA has paid back to the U. S. Treasury $85 million. FHA has a reserve from premiums of over $300 million. It is considered one of the soundest of government operations, though its reputation has now been blackened.

Malik Rejects British Charges Against Envoys

LONDON — Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik today rejected British charges that two air attaches at the Russian embassy here attempted to engage in espionage.

Malik called on British Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd at the Foreign Office and told him that the Soviet Union could not accept the British spy charges against Maj. Ivan Pupyshov and Maj. Andrei Gudkov.

Lloyd summoned Malik to his office last Saturday, declared the two officers persona non grata and ordered the two officers to leave the country within 10 days. Malik did not indicate today exactly when they would be leaving. The Russians must observe the expulsion order. Malik, however, rejected the British reasons for the order.

part-by-part proof...

Plymouth is your "best buy" in the lowest-price field!

Recently a 1954 Plymouth and current models of the other two best-known low-price cars were taken apart by Plymouth engineers and compared, part by part. Standard "stock" models were used. We've listed some typical findings below.

Plymouth is "best buy" in many ways. Here are just a few!

	low-price Plymouth	low-price car "A"	low-price car "B"
Front Wheel Brakes Plymouth engineers provide two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel brake to ensure smooth, controlled stops without "grabbing." The "other two" in the lowest-price field have only one.
Seat Springs Plymouth uses coil seat springs since they give longer-lasting support. The other two cars have a zigzag platform type. Also, Plymouth's front seat "springs-on-springs" design adds more comfort.
Piston Rings Plymouth engineers use four rings on each piston, resulting in decreased carbon deposit; more consistent power output. Top ring is chrome plated to give greater oil economy, allow faster "break-in" driving.
Body Mounts Plymouth's thick live-rubber body mounts prevent metal-to-metal contact and protect body from shock and vibration. Just look at the difference between Plymouth's mounts and the thin type used by the "other two"!
Micronic Oil Filter This unit, standard on most Plymouth models, keeps abrasive dirt out of the engine, thus reducing wear and achieving greater oil economy. This feature is available at extra cost on the other two low-price cars.

And dozens of other part-by-part comparisons prove Plymouth is your "best buy"! See us today... and get the facts!

Ask us for the big illustrated booklet that shows how Plymouth leads in frame construction... engine design... performance... economy... comfort... safety. Then...

Go for a drive in America's "best-buy" low-price car!

Mrs. Truman is Invited to White House by Mamie

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Bess Truman will lunch at the White House Thursday at a non-partisan party Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower is giving for "Senate ladies."

It will be Mrs. Truman's first visit at the executive mansion since she and her husband moved out in January, 1953.

Mary Jane McCaffrey, secretary to Mrs. Eisenhower, said the First Lady sent an invitation to Mrs. Truman when she heard the Trumans would be visiting in Washington on the date of the lunch. First ladies traditionally give a party each spring for wives of senators and former senators living in the capital.

Mrs. Truman is a member of the Senate Ladies Club on two counts—as the wife of former Sen. Harry S. Truman (D-Mo.), and as the wife of former Vice President Harry S. Truman. She presided over the group for a brief period in 1945 before Mr. Truman became president.

Teen-Age Boy Admits Fatally Slashing Girl, 4

DETROIT — A teen-aged boy who admitted slashing and beating a four-year-old girl to death was questioned today about other violent crimes and the motives for his horrifying assault.

Police said the boy, Terrence DeMoss, 15, confessed that he clubbed the girl with a two-by-four and cut her body many times with a razor blade.

The girl, Marion Jo Zebrovitz, was found in a garage Tuesday with a crushed chest and a fractured skull. Her body was badly mutilated. She died later in Receiving hospital.

Officers arrested young DeMoss within 6 1/2 hours after the girl was slain on a tip from a policeman neighbor, Patrolman Andrew Hunter. Meantime, the youth's mother was getting ready to turn him in.

Woman's Club Has Program on Art

The Harrisburg Woman's club met at the Junior high school Monday afternoon for the program on art appreciation, for which Mrs. H. B. Bauman was chairman.

During the business session, over which Mrs. J. J. Klein, the president, presided, Mrs. Don Scott was accepted as a social member, and Mrs. Merle Guard, Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. J. D. Winpsee as active members.

Mrs. J. A. Bottomley read the revised by-laws for the club, and they were accepted by unanimous vote. Invitations were received from the Woman's club in Rosiclare, which is having its Silver Tea on May 13 from 2:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m., and from Mrs. Raymond Day, president of the S. L. U. Woman's club, for a meeting on May 29.

Mrs. Klein then turned the program over to Mrs. Bauman who introduced Mrs. Ray Durham. Mrs. Durham gave an appropriate meditation and Mothers' Day tribute.

Mrs. Bauman spoke on the work of the art course with relation to everyday living and on the originality of the children who use things that one would ordinarily throw away. She showed original designs made by the children and stressed the fact that they had made nice articles with such limited facilities. Following her talk she invited the group to look at the display in the gymnasium.

Mrs. Jack Rich, the former Nadine Stanley, Harrisburg, underwent surgery Saturday at the St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington, Ky. Her condition is critical.

Old Longshoremen's Union Fined $92,000 for Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The old International Longshoremen's Association and eight of its locals were fined $92,000 Tuesday night for pressing the longest and costliest strike in this port's history in defiance of a federal court order.

Three of the union's officers were sentenced to prison for their parts in the strike.

The three — Harold Bowers, William Ackalitis and William Lynch — were paroled pending appeal of the sentences expected today.

Bowers, secretary of the notorious "pistol" Local 824 was sentenced to six months. Ackalitis, business agent of Local 874, and Lynch, secretary-treasurer of Local 791, received sentences of three months.

Federal Judge Harold P. Burke, of Rochester, N. Y., levied the fines and sentences after a jury of seven men and five women deliberated eight hours and brought in a verdict of guilty of criminal contempt. The trial began March 29.

The blow was a critical one for the old I.L.A., which is fighting for its life with a newly formed AFL union of the same name. The port's 25,000 dock workers will choose between the two unions at a bargaining election May 26.

Coal accounts for two-thirds of all the fuels consumed by the electric power industry.

White Sox Fan Gets In Game

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago White Sox baseball fan almost cost the Sox a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night when he "voluntarily" decided to play a little major league baseball himself.

The fan, Otis Williams, 25, scooped up a two-base hit while Minoza lined into right field while the ball was still in play in the seventh inning. He ran onto the field from the right field stands.

He was arrested by police immediately and jailed on two disorderly conduct charges.

Williams' "not very sparkling play" in the eyes of 20,000 partisan Sox fans deprived Minoza of a run-batted-in and knocked him out of the leadership in that American League department. It also took a triple away from Minoza, who also leads that department.

Southern won the meet, held at Charleston, with 67 1-10 points.

Kiwanis to Again Sponsor Junior Leagues

Baseball School Will Be Added; First Saturday Morning

Plans are about complete for another Kiwanis-sponsored baseball league in Harrisburg, it was stated Tuesday. This will be the third year for the league, with Kiwanian Ronnie Doerge chairman of the program.

In addition to regular league play, a baseball school will be a part of the program this season, with the first school period set for Saturday, May 15, at 9:30 a. m.

"We feel the boys should have a chance to play ball, but also should be taught the fundamentals and it isn't possible to teach a boy how to play during a game. In the past if a boy was doing something incorrectly he just continued that way all season. We hope to correct these faults this year," Doerge said, in discussing the school.

The school will continue throughout the summer, being held each Saturday from 9 to 11:30, but will be open only to those boys participating in regular league play.

Charley Nelson, veteran ball player, will be instructor at the school and the plans now are to devote each Saturday to a different part of the game — running the bases, batting, throwing, sliding etc. To get the full benefit of the school a boy should attend all sessions.

Two Games Per Day

Nelson is working out-of-town and is in Harrisburg only on week ends so he will not be connected with the league. Clarence Owens and Stobart Abney will supervise regular play.

Plans are to play two games each day, five days a week, using both the town park diamond and the diamond at Taylor Field. This is the plan that was so successful last year.

Four leagues will operate. One league will be for boys 9 to 12 years of age, one for players 14 and under, one for 15 year olds and under and the older league will be open to players 16 to 20 years of age. To be eligible for a group, a player must not have reached the maximum age by Aug. 1 of this year.

Groups interested in sponsoring teams should contact Mr. Doerge, rto. 777. Registration fee is $30, with the Kiwanis furnishing all balls and bats necessary for league games and paying supervisory personnel.

The season really gets underway this Saturday, with the opening session of school. All boys in Harrisburg within the ages listed are invited and urged to take part in this summer-long baseball program.

Carrier Mills to Play Marion in Subdistrict Finals

Carrier Mills took the lead in this tilt and kept it. The Wildcats got nine hits compared to but four for Golconda.

For Golconda, Roper, Green, Shomaker and Fritch got one each. Cowger was on the mound for Carrier Mills and went all the way. The Golconda batteries were Green and Rush.

The winner of the Carrier Mills-Marion game tomorrow will play the winner of the Norris City district for the district championship.

Conley Blanks Dodgers as Braves Win, 2-0; Phils Beat Cubs; Giants Win, 5-4

By CARL LUNDQUIST

United Press Sports Writer
Lean Gene Conley tossed a few fast curves today into the baseball gossip that he was just another minor league marvel who couldn't quite make it in the majors.

Stringbean Gene, the 6-foot, 8-inch rookie right hander of the Milwaukee Braves is the only player in professional baseball history ever to be named twice as minor league "player of the year," but after two previous unsuccessful trials with the Braves, there seemed to be doubts as to his major league potential.

Tuesday night, with the poise of a veteran, he turned in the first shutout over the Dodgers since July 11 of last season, beating them 2-0 and striking out seven while walking none. It was his second straight route-going triumph and he was at his best with men on bases, striking out Gil Hodges with two on and Duke Snider with one on in troublesome situations.

Conley had to be superb because until Joe Adcock homered in the sixth it was a scoreless battle. In the seventh the Braves scored again when Ed Mathews doubled home Danny O'Connell from first on a clout that even had the umpires arguing. It was ruled a double, then a homer, then a double, and there was further dispute over whether O'Connell should have scored, and whether Mathews was out for going on past second into a Pee Wee Reese tag. It was ruled he did so after time was called.

Phil's Beat Cubs
In other National league games, the Phils defeated the Cubs 8-7 in the 10th on a single by Del Ennis after Richie Ashburn walked and moved up on a wild pitch, while the Giants came from behind to top Cincinnati, 5-4, and the Pirates and Cards were rained out at Pittsburgh.

Bob Keegan made it four victories for Chicago when he six-hitted the Red Sox, 2-1, and started off the winning rally with a triple, while Yogi Berra clouted a two-run double in the ninth as the Yankees edged Cleveland 5-3. Joe Coleman pitched a two-hit 2-0 shutout for Baltimore over Philadelphia and Bob Porterfield pitched a four-hitter and hit a ninth inning homer in Washington's 5-3 win at Detroit in the American league.

Ennis drove in four runs in the Philly triumph, which was achieved after the Cubs had gone in front with a four-run seventh inning rally. Ralph Kiner had four Chicago hits.

Monte Irvin tripled home the winning run for the Giants in the eighth after Willie Mays and Whitey Lockman hit earlier homers. Ted Kluszewski hit his 10th homer for Cincy, tying him for the major league lead.

Keegan tripled and scored the winning run for Chicago on a single by Nellie Fox, moving the White Sox back into second place ahead of Cleveland.

First baseman Al Rosen, a novice at the job, set up New York's winning hit by Berra when with a runner on first, he started after Hank Bauer's grounder then decided to let Bobby Avila field it. Then Avila had no one to throw to at first and it went for a single. Rosen previously had tied the score at 3-3 off winning pitcher Allie Reynolds.

CITY SCHOOLS ART EXHIBIT.
The annual art exhibit is being held this week in the gymnasium of the Junior high school. Articles on display are from each city school, with work from the kindergarten grades through the eighth. In the above picture, Mrs. H. B. Bauman, city schools art supervisor, is explaining to Robert Harmon, a seventh grade student at the Junior high school, how the rabbits in the exhibit were made. Incidentally, the material used is corn shucks, and the Easter eggs in the basket were made from wall-paper paste and sawdust. In the picture at the side Halloween false faces made from paper-mache are placed to form a totem pole. Other exhibits may be seen in the background. (Register Staff Photos)

PMW Charges Mine With Failure to Pay Into Welfare Fund
SPRINGFIELD — The Progressive Mine Workers of America today sought a court order for an accounting of the operation of the Wenneburg Coal Co. mine at near-by Sherman.

W. C. Gill and Cecil Stricklin, co-trustees of the PMWA's welfare and retirement fund, filed suit in Sangamon County Circuit Court Tuesday charging the company had violated an agreement to pay 40 cents into the fund for each ton of coal the mine produced.

They sought to have the matter turned over to the master in chancery for an accounting of all coal dug since March, and a judgment to the fund for the amount found to be due.
